The image displays a three-system musical score for a chorale. Each system consists of a grand staff with a treble clef on the upper staff and a bass clef on the lower staff. The music is written in common time (C). The first system shows the beginning of the piece with a treble staff featuring a melodic line and a bass staff with a simple accompaniment. The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The third system concludes the piece, with a fermata over the final note in the treble staff, which is marked with an asterisk (*). The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and accidentals.
